

Health & Safety

---

Module purpose	This module provides the learner with the knowledge to understand the purpose and intention of the Occupational Health & Safety Act, associated legislations and regulations including Asbestos Awareness and Hearing Conservation that impact on employees within their workplace.
For whom	All field personnel.
Prerequisites	Nil
Summary of content	An overview of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Occupational Health &amp; Safety (Asbestos) Regulations 2003</li><li>• Employer and employee responsibilities and obligations with regards health and safety</li><li>• Hazardous environments and the risk of asbestos related disease</li><li>• Exposure standards, Control of occupational exposure, Licensing scheme for asbestos removalists, Removal requirements</li><li>• Contact with asbestos materials, Incident Reporting</li><li>• Dangerous Goods Act</li><li>• Hearing Conservation</li></ul>
Assessment	Written Assessment. Completion of a Risk Assessment.
Planned duration	3 hours for group of 12 learners
Frequency	Two Yearly Assessment / Refresher Training, or as required due to significant changes to Legislations and Regulations affecting the work group.